We, the Class of 1957, having reached the top

of our ladder,

dedicate this JAGUAR, our annual book, on behalf of all the students

who,
we see,
are still

climbing behind us.

Dedication

The climb to the top of the ladder has not been an easy one; we have often been wearied, more often been discouraged; and in our Senior year we have seen the final steps loom interminably ahead. The other years at Falls Church have been memorable ones; all have contributed their share of the flavor of high school. But the Senior year is special. There is a uniqueness about endings, a precious quality in having reached the last rung of a ladder. For this reason all activities in our Senior year, all the people we have met and known, make, perhaps, the deepest impressions on us.

Mr. Mishou, you occupy a special niche in Falls Church, as we have remembered you over all our high school years. Many of us took your Senior civics and those of us who did not, saw you at our class meetings, guiding us in our particular problems. You taught us more than Civics and you guided more than our meetings. Instructing us in government and man's dealings with his fellow man, you stressed those same rights and duties in your classrooms, insisting upon politeness in class discussions toward each of us by the others.

And that is why we dedicate our official record of school life to you, Mr. Mishou, for you are a symbol of our Senior year. You stand for all that we have gained in high school, knowledge, not only of books, but of people, which is the rarer form of wisdom.

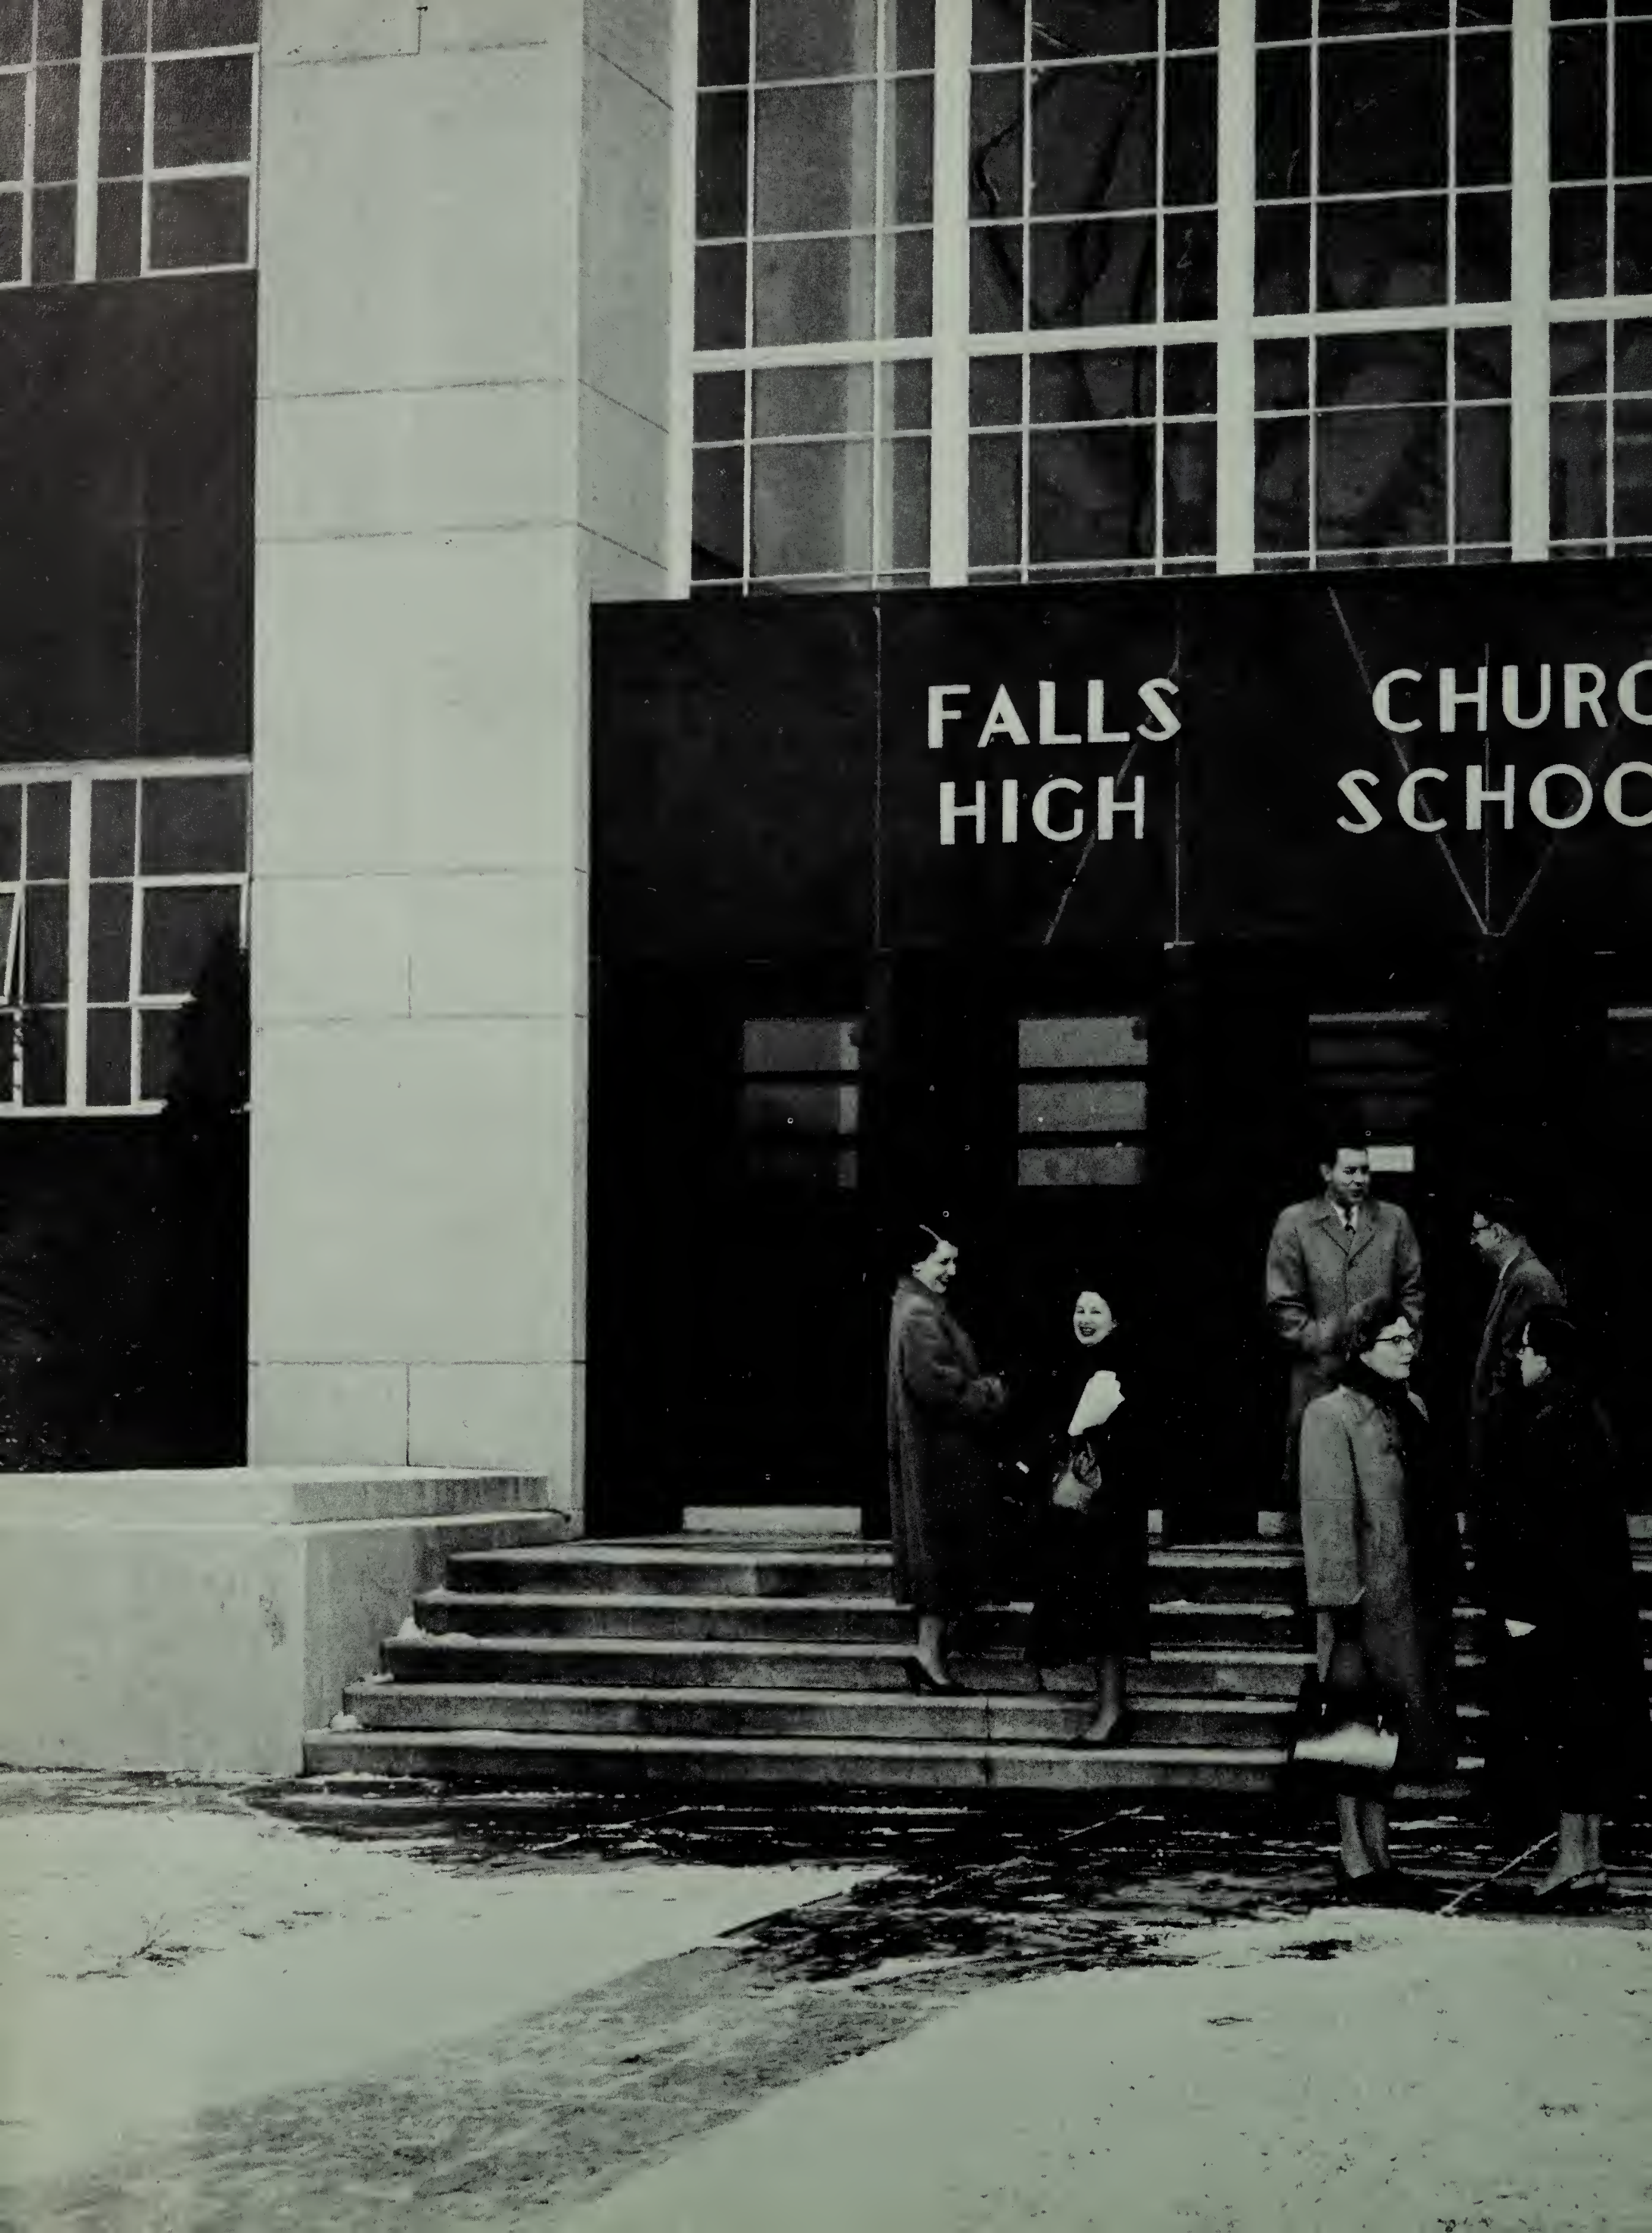

MR. FRANK H. MISHOU

Mr. Mason

Principal

This year has seen many changes, several of which have been effected by our new principal, Mr. William Leon Mason. Bringing with him from Mount Vernon High School, where he had served as Assistant Principal, the educational experience of fourteen years, Mr. Mason has made great strides in establishing his philosophy of education. His intrinsic "belief in teenagers" has caused him to give the students larger and larger parts in the responsibility for their own activities. He has expressed a conviction that most teenagers are capable of assuming their share in the administration of our high school and accordingly has created such student organizations as the Student Staff and the Principal's Advisory Committee of Students. With what Mr. Mason terms "excellent cooperation" of faculty and students, this trust has begun to pay its own way, a way that promises a new era of attainment for Falls Church High School.

One of Mr. Mason's most important innovations is the Student Staff. He is here shown discussing school business with three representative Staff members—Gary Wilkins, Harry Woodward, and John Bowers.

Mr. Barrett

Assistant Principal

The job of Assistant Principal for Discipline is a very important and sometimes unpleasant job that Mr. Barrett has discharged with both firmness and fairness for many years. He brings teaching experience and a sense of humor to his duties. Besides the problem of discipline, he serves in many other administrative capacities around the school. Altogether, his efforts in the maintenance of orderly routine help to make education at Falls Church High School a most profitable and pleasurable experience.

Dr. Day

Assistant Principal

Another new pedagogue has appeared on the Falls Church scene this year. Dr. Orlo Day, our Assistant Principal for Instruction, has assumed the duties of superintending the learning activities of this institution, and has been responsible for many of the services that compose our curricular atmosphere. His educational background, and instructional experience in many subjects has enabled him to bring to his duties an ability which has helped our school maintain its steady progress throughout this term.

Librarian

Books have always been an integral part of education; not only school texts, but novels, poetry, science books, encyclopedias. There are books for fun, too. At school, our library provides books of all kinds, and our librarian, Mrs. Jackson, makes sure that each student may read as much as he wants. Helping her are our new assistant librarian, Mr. Gott, and a staff of students trained to run a library so that students and teachers may enjoy and benefit from the world of books. Students are constantly urged to explore other and larger libraries, so that their vision of reading materials is not limited to our own four walls.

The cycle has run its course once again, and the uncomfortable eighth-graders who watched the Class of '53 graduate are now ready to don their caps and gowns and leave after five outstanding years. This year they distinguished themselves scholastically by placing finalists in the National Merit and General Motors competitions. After treating last year's seniors to a lavish prom, they made the Sadie Hawkins and Homecoming Dances big successes. This year, under the leadership of John Bowers, in his second year as president of the Class of '57, the class is proud and anxious as it approaches the final days of high school.

The Class of '58 has moved along since last year's successful sophomore term and produced, under President John Murray, some of the year's shining features. They have sponsored the Night Club Dance, a major social and entertainment event of the year. The Junior-Senior Prom, climax of the school season and annual gift to the Seniors, stood out from all those given before. An even more promising year is anticipated for 1957-58.

The Freshman Class, presided over by Charlotte Baker, participated actively in the school's activities. Aside from the usual sports, clubs, and forensics, the class sponsored a dance emceed by a popular disk jockey which brought the class important funds for future use. From the appearance of this wide-awake class, we predict that the Seniors of 1960 will be an outstanding group of graduates.

The Thetamen started the year by electing very capable officers: Freddie Diezel, President; John Mansfield, Vice-President; Sandy Jones, Secretary; Linda Scott, Treasurer; Dave Martin, Sergeant-at-Arms; Anne DeTemple, Girl Senator; and John Silliman, Boy Senator. Under the leadership of these people and with the help of their sponsors, Mrs. Wood and Col. Hillery, they managed to give a very successful dance on April 26, which started them on their way to successful upper-class years.

ACTIVITIES

Student Council

With more money in the treasury than in any previous year, the Student Council Association, under the leadership of President Sam Yancy, was destined to have a successful year. Much needed revenue was derived from the Student Bookstore and the Welcome and Sweetheart Dances. This enabled the Council to publish the Student Handbook and sponsor a Safety Drive (in cooperation with the National Safety Council), a Christmas Drive, and a March of Dimes campaign that broke state records and brought national honor to the school. Through its activities, the SCA has made a significant contribution toward the development of greater prestige for the school.

The JAGUAR JOURNAL is a four-page newspaper which is published every two weeks by the students of Falls Church High School.

The paper is a member of the National Scholastic Press Association and the Southern Interscholastic Press Association, and it is also a Scholastic ROTO Distributor.

This year, under the able direction of Chip Durley, Editor, and Mrs. Dean C. Donohoe, Sponsor, the JAGUAR JOURNAL has had one of its best years.

S.P.T.A. ACHIEVEMENTS IN 1956-57

During the 1956-57 school year the Falls Church High School S.P.T.A. took cognizance of the college admissions problems arising from the ever-mounting enrollment in the nation's colleges and universities. For the first time — College Night, sponsored jointly by the school administration and the S.P.T.A., was held so that parents as well as students could sit in on the sessions presided over by representatives from many colleges and universities.

Later in the year an S.P.T.A. program was devoted to a student-parent-teacher panel discussion on scholastic standards which was related to the general problem of admission to colleges.

As in the past, the S.P.T.A. provided two scholarships, an Achievements Awards plaque, and financial assistance to a number of school activities.

Due to a string of injuries, bad luck, and playing that was sometimes not as good as that of our opponents, our football team finished the '57 season with a 2-7-1 record. Under the guidance of Mr. Paul Weber, back coach, and Mr. Norman Chaudet, line coach, our team was led by such players as Sam Yancy, Jim Intolubbe, Ralph Round, and Harry Woodward into a season that was sometimes quite disheartening in its defeats. In perhaps our best game, for example, we lost to George Mason, 13-12, after our winning touchdown was called back on a penalty. The situation was similar in the Culpepper game. The boys continued to play hard despite their defeats, and exhibited outstanding sportsmanship. We look forward to a team next year with a bit more good luck and the same sense of fair play that has distinguished this year's team.

This year's varsity baseball season has been highlighted by a surprising amount of hitting. The pre-season predictions were that F C H S was going to be sadly in need of the sound of leather on wood, and to Coach Todd the hitting came as a very pleasant surprise.

After graduation last year we were left with only four returning lettermen. Other positions were filled ably by ex-JV's who had received experience on our JV and summer league teams.

Another marked change in the team has been an improved team spirit which kept them fighting until the last inning was over. This drive won often for the Jaguars.

The "Jaguars" had a successful season this year under the coaching of Mr. Chaudet and Mr. Valotto. They started their schedule by tying Hammond and beating George Washington in their first meet, and taking the first step toward a county championship for the second successive year by taking a decisive victory over Fairfax.

Some of the outstanding performers on this year's team were Curtis Click and Bernard Hockey in the distances, Sam Yancy and Herm Schmidt in the pole vault, Bill Forrell in the 440, Bob Pangborn in the broad jump, Matt Murray in the low hurdles and broad jump, and Mike Foley in the shot put and discus

In the best series in years, our hockey team took the county championship with a 5-0-1 record. Such players as Eunice Zimmerman, Betty Ruegg, Phyllis Graham, Judy Willoughby and others gave their coaches, Miss Morrison and Miss Porch, a year in which to take great pride.

The girls' basketball team, running under a streak of bad luck and powerful opposition, did not finish undefeated. Sparked by a team which trained long and fought hard, however, they scored creditably with a 4 - 6 - 0 record for Falls Church High.

MISS M. PORCH

If one sentence could be used to describe this year's girls' softball team, that phrase would be, "It was fun!" Hampered by the inexperience of the team—only two of the girls had held positions previous to this season—the coaches trained and the girls practiced and played with vigor. As to the relative prowess of their various opponents, the team unanimously declared Mount Vernon to be their toughest adversary.

Homecoming Court

The annual homecoming game, played against Wakefield High School, was one of the most spectacular of the season. Although one may be misled by the score, the "Jaguars" played an inspired brand of football.

Our lovely Queen and her court entered the half-time ceremonies in a parade of cars. During the ceremonies Miss Pat Howard, Queen of '56, crowned Mrs. Marlene Segelbaum Chew, Homecoming Queen of 1957. That evening the attractively-attired young ladies of the court, and the Queen herself contributed to the gala atmosphere of the dance, and left an indelible picture in the minds of all who attended.

DOG PATCH

Our school gym became "Dogpatch" for a one-night stand, time enough for plenty of folks to get hitched by "Marryin' Sam" while newlyweds "Lil Abner" and "Daisy May" looked on. Mammy and Pappy Yokum chaperoned as "Honest Abe" capped the backwoods festivities.

Prom Court

The annual Junior-Senior Prom, with the Juniors as hosts, took place in the main ballroom of the Shoreham Hotel on the first night in June. Jean Reed, prom queen, in a white formal, was crowned by last year's queen, Raye Wheeler, after the court entered in regal procession. To the Seniors this very special prom will remain in their memories for a long, long time.

Print

JOAN PINKERTON and JANE TAYLOR, Co-Editors

The PAW PRINT has, in a way, grown up with the class graduating this year. It began four years ago when they were freshmen. Each of those four years has seen improvements and new developments. Since the two mimeographed issues of 1954, the PAW PRINT has had nine publications.

This year's first issue was a sleek new size and it had eleven more pages than before. The outside was a dark blue and the pages were a lighter shade. The editors and staff this year decided to have a theme for the magazine, and the subject "The Teenager" was explored.

The PAW PRINT staff, under the expert guidance of Miss Betty Toone, has tried always to put out a magazine of literary quality, one which is artistically and tastefully produced, one which the students of Falls Church can be eager to read and proud to keep.

Time Out For Ginger

"GINGER"

The first performance of the Falls Church High School Theatrical Season was "Time Out for Ginger" directed by a new addition to the faculty, Miss Lucy Jo Jackson. It was a light comedy about a girl who wanted to play football on the boys' varsity football team. Rochelle Goulde played the part of the gridiron aspirant. Paul Kvale and Carole Hilton played the lead roles in the production. Their performances stood out as the father and mother of Ginger. Ginger's sisters were played by Pam St. Clair and Heather Hanley. Other outstanding players were David Kemp as the High School Principal, Jim Intolubbe as the big masculine football player who is enamoured of Joan Carol. Tommy Green as Ginger's boyfriend, John Bowers as Ed Hoffman, and Carol Robey as the maid also made this outstanding play by Ronald Alexander a hit.

Mr. Carol gives Mrs. Carol his version of a stupendous football game.

Eddie sings his version of "Nothing But A Hound Dog" for Mr. Carol.

Oklahoma

Standing: Cord Elan—CRAIG DAVIS; Aunt Eller—CAROL ROBEY; Will Parker—ALVIN HALL; Ado Annie—PAM ST. CLAIR; Andrew Caines—PAUL KVALE.

"Oklahoma" is the fourth musical to be given by the Drama and Music Departments of Falls Church High School. The love story of Laurie and Curley played by Gary Wilkins and John Bowers respectively, is the theme.

The scene is laid in the territory of Oklahoma before it becomes a state. The play is noted for its good music and refreshing homespun atmosphere.

Our new principal, Mr. Leon Mason, instituted this year an organization of students, the Student Staff, to put the responsibility for student discipline as much as possible in the hands of the students themselves. With its administration under the direction of the class and SCA presidents, it has gained respect and appreciation among the students for bringing order to the school, for serving at basketball games, assemblies and other activities. Its success has brought about the formation of the Junior Student Staff, made up of freshmen and sophomores, who will compose the Student Staff of future years. The school may take pride in this example of the ability of teen-agers to handle their own problems.

Farewell

Those of us who are seniors at Falls Church find that a dread and terrible disease is creeping upon us. It is one that was completely alien to us as the tamen at the bottom rung of the ladder of learning. It is one that we ridiculed as sophomores, that we spoke of with apprehension when, as juniors, we saw the last steps ahead of us. Now it has hit us and we're a little ashamed of it. It is called nostalgia, an ailment peculiar to those who approach and pass the final graduation from Falls Church High School.

We stand around at the prom parties and stage bull-sessions and start all our remarks with, "Remember when . . ." or, "And there was the time that . . ." The girls cry, and sometimes the boys do, too, when graduation comes around. We never say what we feel, because we don't know how to, and we're ashamed of it a little bit, afraid we'll be laughed at for being corny and foolish by friends who are more successful in hiding their sentiment. We stumble and grope for words to express our feelings, and cannot communicate to the underclassmen what it means to leave, can't say anything to them except, "Just you wait a year or two!" It's hard to say farewell to a school, to thousands of students, some long graduated, some just starting, to teachers and janitors and bus drivers and the grimy walls and inaccurate clock and clanging bells and the thousand insignificant things we shall remember, the faces that will blur into hazy images to haunt reminiscence.

We can't say just, "Goodbye," because we mean so much more than that. Our "Farewell" must contain a "Thank-you," an "I remember," a "Goodbye," an "Oh heck!" of ashamed deprecation and of realization that all those corny platitudes that last year's seniors piously proclaimed have become real, and, finally, a "Hello" to the new memories that will come after the final valediction.

With all of these intended, we, the seniors of Falls Church High School who, are at the top of the ladder, looking back, say to everything that goes to make up the lasting soul of a school:
